

1019. TRAINING RECORDS

Upon receipt by the Division of employment information properly identifying an individual officer, in a manner adopted by the Commission, the Division will maintain a file for that officer and record certified training completed, as well as other personnel information, if properly documented. It must be emphasized however, that each officer should maintain his own training and education records, documented by transcripts, certificates, diplomas, letters, or notices of course completion.