

§ 12-10-314. Automatic alerting devices

No person shall connect to a service supplier's network any automatic alarm or other automatic alerting devices which cause the number 911 to be automatically dialed and provides a prerecorded message in order to directly access the services which may be obtained through a 911 public safety communications center.