Director’s Report:
Director Cook reported that CLEST was complying with all CDC guidelines and Governor Directives related to COVID-19 and that employees are either working from home or on Director’s leave. She reported that the Budget Hearings in March went well and that there are two DPS-related House Bills for the ongoing Fiscal session, HB 1078 related to the Arkansas Division of Emergency Management and HB1093 related to all DPS Divisions. Finally, she reported that, due to COVID-19, ALETA in Camden will delay its start date for Basic Class 2020-B to May 31, 2020 with a new completion date of August 29, 2020 and that ALETA-NW will maintain its previously scheduled start date of April 26, 2020 with students completing the first several weeks of training via online training. She reported that 2020-C classes will commence as scheduled.
