

ONLINE TRAINING - 911 DE-ESCALATION STRATEGIES FOR DISPATCHERS 2018 This course is designed to provide the 911 dispatcher with strategies for dealing with and responding to individuals in crisis. The progression of a crisis is explained and nine tools are discussed that will help the dispatcher in assisting the caller in crisis.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - AGENCY-CRITICAL TASK This course addresses court cases that held agencies liable for civil rights violations, verbal orders by administrators, and the significance of policy/training. Cases analyzed include Monnell v. Department of Social Services, Pembaur v. Cincinnati, and Garrett v. Unified Government of Athens/Clarke County.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING - DEADLY FORCE This course explains the significance of key cases relating to the use of deadly force. The cases explained include Tennessee v. Garner, Scott v. Harris, Allen v. Muskogee, St. HJilaire v. City of Laconia, and Brosseau v. Haugen.	0h 45m
ONLINE TRAINING - DUTY TO PROTECT CITIZENS This course explains the difference between the responsibility of protecting private citizens and the duty to protect inmates or in-custody suspects. In Deshaney v. Winnebago County, the Supreme Court ruled that police have a duty to protect prisoners who, due to the restriction on their liberty, are deprived of any means to protect themselves.	0h 45m
ONLINE TRAINING - FENTANYL WARNING FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT This course gives a brief introduction to the drug – Fentanyl. Danger warnings and safety precautions are addressed when contact to Fentanyl is suspected.	2h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - HOME ENTRIES 1 This course discusses key cases outlining the necessary requirements officers must have to enter a home. Officers may not enter a person’s home to make a routine felony arrest without a warrant. Severity of an offense does not create exigency. Absent exigency or consent, officers must obtain a search warrant before entering the home of a third party to make an arrest of a non-resident. Requirements of a search warrant are reviewed as well as anticipatory search warrants.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING - HOME ENTRIES 2 This course establishes the parameters of a consent search and authority of a consenting party and co-occupant. Illinois v. Rodriguez, Georgia v. Randolph Brigham City, and Utah v. Stuart are examined regarding home entries.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING - HOME ENTRIES 3 This course establishes the importance of obtaining a warrant, explains exigent home entries, and emphasizes that there is no crime scene exception to the warrant requirement. It also discusses what is needed before forcing entry into a dwelling based on a warrant or exigent circumstances.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING - HOME ENTRIES 4	0h 30m

This course covers the rules associated with knock and announce and consequences of violating the knock and announce rule. The course also covers detention while executing a search warrant and search incident to the arrest as it relates to home searches.
ONLINE TRAINING - HOME ENTRIES 5 This course covers both plain view seizure, plain touch seizure, and what rules apply to co-occupants regarding home entries.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING - HRCT- USE OF FORCE MOVING FORWARD This course addresses the relationship with 21st century policing, use of force, and law changes. It discusses several cases that gained national attention including: Michael Brown (Ferguson), Eric Garner (New York), and Tamir Rice (Cleveland). It discusses how professional judgement, training, and education play an essential role in a law enforcement officer's actions in threatening situations.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - HRCT-ARMED OFFICERS/OFF DUTY ACTION This course discusses legal liability and risk management of armed officers' off-duty actions and officer safety. It also discusses agency liability for failure to train for off-duty encounters. It highlights knowing your department's policy on off-duty carrying, secondary employment, and plain clothes.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - HRCT-ARREST SEARCH AND SEIZURE This course discusses the 4th Amendment, Constitutional Law, Supreme Court decisions, and K-9 searches. The course gives meaningful guidance on what can and cannot be done by law enforcement officers during arrest, search, and seizure. It also discusses laws that are in place to safeguard both the public and law enforcement officers.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - HRCT-CARE,CUSTODY, CONTROL AND RESTRAINT OF PRISONERS The course encourages officers to do the right thing, whether rendering aid to the extent of the officer's training, applying restraints, or passing on meaningful information to the jail or emergency medical personnel. Ultimately, it promotes conditioned responses to care, custody, control, and restraining prisoners.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - HRCT-EMERGENCY VEHICLE OPERATIONS This class discusses some of the situations that could arise in the use of emergency vehicle operations (pursuits). It also discusses court cases to give a better explanation of how the courts may view such actions.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - HRCT-HIRING, SELECTION, AND RETENTION This class discusses legal updates and best practices for managing liability in hiring. It also discusses the impact of having a strong process for hiring, selection, and retaining the right personnel.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - HRCT-INTERNAL AFFAIRS INVESTIGATION This class discusses the impact of citizen complaints in an agency. It discusses the right of citizens to file a complaint if they feel they have been wronged and the need for an agency to provide an avenue for such complaints. It also discusses making the complaint process easily identifiable and ensuring no obstructions to filing a complaint.	1h 0m

ONLINE TRAINING - HRCT-POLICE INVOLVED DOMESTIC VIOLENCE This course is intended to help the police supervisor or administrator in dealing with employees when there is domestic misconduct. Special attention is paid to understanding and identifying the underlying problems contributing to domestic misconduct and establishing departmental policies related to domestic misconduct.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - HRCT-PROPERTY AND EVIDENCE This course is intended to educate law enforcement officers on evidentiary issues, how courts have ruled on evidence presented in court, and how the police obtain various types of evidence. Special attention is made to understanding photo and video evidence, circumstantial evidence, evidence obtained from informants, and exculpatory evidence.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - HRCT-RESPONSE TO RESISTANCE USE OF FORCE This course is intended to educate law enforcement officers on dealing with and understanding specific legal liability for use of force and response after use of force. The course focuses on Supreme Court cases and best practices to provide guidance to law enforcement officers.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - HRCT-SEXUAL HARASSMENT, DISCRIMINATION, AND MISCONDUCT This course is intended to educate law enforcement supervision and administrative staff on dealing with and understanding specific legal liability concerning departmental employees. It instructs supervisors on court rulings concerning sexual harassment, discrimination, and sexual misconduct. NOTE: The presenter at the end says there are attachments of forms to the presentation that are not part of the CLEST block.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - HRCT-USE OF FORCE This course educates law enforcement officers and supervisors on dealing with and understanding specific legal liability concerning use of force. It discusses various use of force topics, including: Supreme Court cases, Graham v. Connor, reporting use of force, defining deadly force, pre and post-seizure conduct, high-speed vehicle use of force, rendering aid after use of force, electronic control devices, and sudden in-custody deaths.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - JAIL OPERATIONS 1 This course educates jail administration and staff on dealing with and understanding specific jail issues. It specifically addresses grievance procedures, inmate classification, and use of force in the jail.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING - JAIL OPERATIONS 2 This course educates jail administration and staff on issues related to medical care, suicide prevention, off-duty encounters, sexual harassment, discrimination, and misconduct. *NOTE: Suicide Prevention Video was cut short	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - JAIL OPERATIONS 3 This course educates jail administration and staff on issues related to strip searches when entering the jail and prisoner religious rights.	1h 0m

ONLINE TRAINING - JAIL OPERATIONS 4 This course educates jail administration and staff on issues related to hiring, retention, and early identification of employees in crisis; dealing with hostages; dealing with identity verification or error; and court cases related to unsanitary conditions in the jail. It also discusses examples of law and best practices for the jail.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - JAIL OPERATIONS 5 This course educates jail administration and staff on issues involving prisoner rights related to mail and magazines, dealing with medical aid/needs issues, and jail liability for prisoners placed on a work detail.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - JAIL OPERATIONS 6 This course focuses on the issues of cleanliness in the jail and fire drills or mass casualty incidents. The presentation is intended for jail administration and staff to encourage safety protocol and discussion of procedures.	0h 15m
ONLINE TRAINING – JAIL OPERATIONS 7 This course addresses the liabilities and concerns of the use of restraint chairs in jails and prisoner constitutional rights, specifically as mentioned in the case Turner v. Safley.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING - MOTOR VEHICLES 1 This course addresses vehicle pursuits, force and tactics used during pursuits, civil liability, 4th Amendment seizures, and random license plate checks. Cases analyzed include Sacramento v. Lewis, Redecki v. Barelli, Brower v. Inyo County, Scott v. Harris, U.S. v. Matthews, and U.S. v. Walraven.	0h 45m
ONLINE TRAINING - MOTOR VEHICLES 2 This course addresses traffic stops, driver/passenger rights, officer responsibilities, pretext stops, and the legal authority to charge all occupants with illegal items. Cases analyzed include Penn v. Mims, Maryland v. Wilson, Brendlin v. California, and Whren v. U.S.	0h 45m
ONLINE TRAINING - MOTOR VEHICLES 3 This course addresses canine searches of vehicles including open-air searches, the 4th Amendment, canine sniffs, and vehicle searches incident to arrest. Cases analyzed include U.S. v. Place, IL v. Caballes, MI v. Long, NY v. Belton, and U.S. v. Di Re.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING - MOTOR VEHICLES 4 This course addresses search incident to arrest, focusing on evidence associated with the crime for which the arrest was made. It also discusses consent searches. Cases analyzed include AZ v. Gant, Knowles v. Iowa, Thornton v. U.S., and Schneckloth v. Bustamante.	0h 45m
ONLINE TRAINING - MOTOR VEHICLES 5 This course addresses searches of motor vehicles, establishing probable cause prior to a search, and search of vehicles with probable cause. Cases analyzed include Florida v. Jimeno, Maryland v. Dyson, U.S. v. Ross, Pennsylvania v. Labron, California v. Acevado, U.S. v. Chadwick, and Arkansas v. Sanders.	0h 30m

ONLINE TRAINING - MOTOR VEHICLES 6 This course addresses inventory searches, motor vehicles, community caretaking, and roadblocks for DWI enforcement. Cases analyzed include South Dakota v. Opperman, Cady v. Dombrowski, and Michigan v. Sitz.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING - PATROL OPERATIONS 1 This course discusses court cases that impact three categories of patrol operations regarding the use of force: use of force, SWAT and pointing guns, and taser-active resistance and targeting. It also discusses policies and training that guide the application of force. The court cases analyzed and discussed include Graham v. Conner, Stamp v. Framingham and Brown v. Chapman.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - PATROL OPERATIONS 2 This course addresses the factors that should be taken into consideration regarding pursuits: decision to pursue, supervisor monitoring of pursuits, and environmental conditions affecting the pursuit. The course also addresses terry stops and forced removal. Cases discussed include Alexander v. City of Round Rock.	0h 45m
ONLINE TRAINING - PATROL OPERATIONS 3 This course analyzes three court cases regarding arrest, search, and seizure; Florida v. J.L., Alabama v. White, and Illinois v. Wardlow. The course also addresses probable cause and reasonable suspicion by discussing the difference between probable cause and reasonable suspicion and the levels of proof that separate them.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING - PATROL OPERATIONS 4 This course addresses prisoner care and transport by discussing proper application of restraints, pre-existing injuries of prisoners, prisoner transport, and proper documentation to reduce risks and liabilities to the officer. It discusses safety of the officer and prisoner as a main consideration. Court cases analyzed include Aceto v. Kachajian, Chambers v. Pennycook, and Gousse v. City of Los Angeles.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - PATROL OPERATIONS 5 This course addresses officer involved domestic violence, sexual harassment, discrimination, and misconduct. This course discusses the complexity of officer involved domestic violence and how to reduce liability to the officer and agency by conducting a proper investigation and taking necessary legal action according to state law and agency policy. Sexual harassment, discrimination, and misconduct are discussed, as are the ways to avoid engaging in that behavior and reporting it if seen or experienced.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING - PATROL OPERATIONS 6 This course addresses the importance of policy and procedures regarding property and evidence and ensuring successful prosecutions of criminals. The course addresses special operations and the agency's responsibilities and liabilities when using a special operations team for search warrants. It discusses the necessary procedures for deciding when to use a special operations team and the proper application of the team. This course also addresses responding to persons of diminished capacity, factors that an officer should take into consideration when responding to an emotionally disturbed person, and the steps necessary to ensure a safe resolution of the crisis.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING - PATROL OPERATIONS 7	0h 30m

This course addresses the selection, hiring, and retention of officers and the steps and measures necessary to identify and address potential problems with employees. This course discusses internal affairs and complaints and the role that proper complaint and investigation processes play in reducing liability to the officer and agency. It also addresses repercussions and perceptions when an officer is exonerated.
ONLINE TRAINING - PATROL OPERATIONS 8 This course addresses taking off-duty action and the dangers that are inherent in acting in that capacity. It discusses options to reduce the risk and liability when an officer is presented with circumstances that may warrant a response while off-duty. The course also covers law enforcement response to being filmed in public. Court cases analyzed and discussed include Glick v. Cunniffe and Gericke v. Begin.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING - PATROL OPERATIONS 9 This course addresses exculpatory evidence and the ramifications of failing to disclose such evidence. The court cases analyzed include Brady v. Maryland and Giglio v. United States.	0h 15m
ONLINE TRAINING – PATROL OPERATIONS 10 This course is divided into two sections. Part 1 gives a brief synopsis of County of Los Angeles v. Mendez. This case addresses two concepts involved in officer jeopardy concerning pre-shooting conduct: search warrants and knock and announce. Part 2 discusses Mullenix v. Luna which involves the Use of Force on a moving vehicle.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING - QUESTIONING 1 This course addresses the issue of questioning individual’s in-custody. Cases discussed include Miranda v. Arizona, Missouri v. Seibert, Bobby v. Dixon, and PA v. Bruder.	0h 45m
ONLINE TRAINING - QUESTIONING 2 This course discusses specific issues related to in-custody questioning. Issues discussed include routine booking questions and Miranda rights, when to provide Miranda warnings, sentenced prisoners, and the functional equivalent of interrogation.	0h 45m
ONLINE TRAINING - QUESTIONING 3 This course discusses exceptions to the Miranda requirements. Specific issues addressed include Miranda and reasonable suspicion, the public safety exception, voluntary statements, and invocation of right to counsel.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING - QUESTIONING 4 This course discusses exceptions to the Miranda requirements when questioning a suspect. Specific issues addressed include re-initiating dialogue by the suspect after invocation of right to counsel (Edwards v. Arizona), further questioning after invocation of right to silence, questioning any public employee or officer (Garrity v. NJ), and questioning juveniles.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING - QUESTIONING 5 This course addresses various types of statements made to law enforcement officers during questioning. Specific issues discussed include what happens to evidence seized as a result of a violation of Miranda,	0h 30m

recording of statements made in violation of Miranda, statements made by victims and witnesses, statements and witness availability, and after the suspect invokes the right to counsel – overcoming the Edwards Rule.
ONLINE TRAINING - STREET ENCOUNTERS 1 This course addresses court cases that impacted four categories of Street Encounters; Consensual Contact, Physical Seizure of a Person, Show of Authority Seizure of a Person, and Seizure of a Person. The court cases analyzed and discussed include Florida v. Bostick, Brower v. Inyo County, California v. Hodari D, and Terry v. Ohio.	0h 45m
ONLINE TRAINING - STREET ENCOUNTERS 2 This course addresses court cases that impacted four categories of Street Encounters; seizure based on reasonable suspicion, reasonable suspicion of length of detention, task based on anonymous tip, and stop based on corroborated anonymous tip. The court cases involved in these categories are Illinois v. Wardlow, U.S. v. Sharpe, Florida v JL, and Alabama v. White.	0h 45m
ONLINE TRAINING - STREET ENCOUNTERS 3 This course addresses court cases that impacted four categories of Street Encounters; frisk of person in commercial establishment, detaining persons who fail to identify themselves during a terry stop, handcuffing at the scene of a search warrant, and involuntarily transporting a person to the station. The court cases analyzed and discussed include Ybarra v. Illinois, Michigan v. Summers, Muehler v. Mean, Dunaway v. New York, and Hayes v. Florida.	0h 45m
ONLINE TRAINING - STREET ENCOUNTERS 4 This course addresses court cases that impacted four categories of Street Encounters; involuntarily transporting a person to the station, arrest of person who fails to identify themselves during a valid terry stop, arrest, and probable cause determination for valid arrest. The court cases analyzed are Kaupp v. Texas, Hibel v. Humbolt County, Virginia v. Moore, and Devenpeck v. Alford.	0h 45m
ONLINE TRAINING - STREET ENCOUNTERS 5 This course addresses court cases that impacted four categories of Street Encounters; detention during warrant execution, forced blood draw, DNA swabbing of arrestees, and fleeing misdemeanants. The court cases analyzed and discussed include Bailey v. U.S., Missouri v. McNeely, Maryland v. King, and Stanton v. Sims.	0h 45m
ONLINE TRAINING - STREET ENCOUNTERS 6 This course addresses court cases that impacted five categories of Street Encounters; identification generally and show up identification, arrest in public place, disorderly conduct arrests, failure to intervene to protect citizen from officer, and failure to intervene to protect citizen from officer-duties of supervisor. The court cases analyzed and discussed include Neil v. Biggers, U.S. v. Watson, Houston v. Hill, Mick v. Brewer, and Shaw v. Stroud.	0h 45m
ONLINE TRAINING - STRIP AND BODY CAVITY SEARCHES This course addresses the factors that should be taken into consideration regarding searches such as strip searches at jail booking (manner of strip search must be reasonable) and body cavity searches. The court case analyzed and discussed include Florence v. Board of Chosen Freeholders of County of Burlington.	0h 45m

ONLINE TRAINING - SUPREME COURT CASES-UPDATE 4 IMPORTANT CASES This course provides an update on the cases decided by the Supreme Court during the 2013-2014 term. The cases discuss issues related to entry of private property during a hot pursuit, qualified immunity, obtaining consent to search from co-occupants, searches of cell phones, and anonymous tips.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - SUPREME COURT UPDATE-AFTER SUSPECT INVOKES RIGHT TO COUNSEL This course outlines to Supreme Court's holding in Edwards v. Arizona. The court held that once a person has been mirandized and invoked their right to counsel, law enforcement officers may not re-initiate questioning. The court's holding does not prevent an arrestee from reinitiating conversation.	0h 15m
ONLINE TRAINING - SUPREME COURT UPDATE-DUI TESTING & REFUSALS This course discusses the Supreme Court's decisions related to criminal DWI refusal statutes. The course outlines the difference between warrantless breath testing and warrantless blood testing.	0h 15m
ONLINE TRAINING - SUPREME COURT UPDATE-EMOTIONALLY DISTURBED PERSONS This course gives guidance on how to deal with persons who are emotionally disturbed, mentally impaired, or suicidal. It also emphasizes the need for officers to identify themselves when dealing with individuals, slow things down if possible, and communicate as effectively as possible.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - SUPREME COURT UPDATES - SPECIAL OPERATIONS This course discusses unique issues related to SWAT and other specialized tactical teams. The course outlines court cases involving seizures, 4th Amendment implications of accidental shootings, manner of arrest, flash bangs, line of sight, barricaded subject cases and the HIPS principle, and the use of deadly force.	0h 45m
ONLINE TRAINING - SUPREME COURT UPDATES-2014-2015 This course reviews significant cases relating to law enforcement that were heard and decided by the Supreme Court in 2014-2015. Issues discussed include "knock and talk" issues, applications of the exclusionary rules, use of force in jails, vehicular consent searches and the use of K-9s, dealing with persons in crisis, and the Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA).	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - SUPREME COURT UPDATES-2017 BIRCHFIELD V. NORTH DAKOTA DUI TESTING This course discusses criminal refusal statutes and the Supreme Court's ruling on the admissibility of breath or blood testing based on the intrusiveness involved in obtaining the sample.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - SUPREME COURT UPDATES-CARE, CUSTODY, & CONTROL OF PRISONERS This course discusses an officer's duty of care to prisoners and the different standards of care they may be held to depending on the prisoner's status. It discusses an officer's duty of care when making arrests, including proper use of handcuffs and preventing asphyxiation. Finally, it discusses rendering aid in shooting cases.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING - SUPREME COURT UPDATES-ECD&2ND AMENDMENT	0h 15m

This course discusses a Supreme Court decision outlining the test for determining whether a particular weapon is covered under the 2nd Amendment. The court ruled that a weapon must be both unusual and dangerous to not receive protection under the 2nd Amendment.
ONLINE TRAINING - TRAINING This course discusses court cases that impact a law enforcement agency's obligation to train officers for recurring tasks, identifying those tasks, failure to train, and failure to supervise. It also discusses 4th Amendment issues involving ride-along programs.	0h 45m
ONLINE TRAINING - USE OF FORCE 1 This course discusses the court case Graham v. Conner and the objective reasonableness standard for use of force on citizens by law enforcement officers.	0h 45m
ONLINE TRAINING - USE OF FORCE 2 This course discusses the reasonableness test for use of force by law enforcement officers post arrest. Pre-conviction and post-conviction are discussed.	0h 45m
ONLINE TRAINING – HRCT – DEMONSTRATIONS, MASS PROTESTS AND THE OCCUPY MOVEMENT This course describes some common concerns for law enforcement when working protest events. Important court rulings include Papineau v. Parmley, Schenck v. United States, and Sharp v. Baltimore. Tactics are explored as they relate to established court rulings.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING – HRCT – TASER IMMEDIATE DANGER 4TH CIRCUIT This course explains the ruling of Armstrong v. The Village of Pinehurst. This case involves the use of force in the form of a TASER on a person that is mentally ill. Implications for law enforcement are discussed in detail.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING – HRTC – BRADY/GIGLIO IA INVESTIGATIONS This course describes the rulings of court cases Brady 1963 and Giglio 1973 in detail as they apply to law enforcement. The issues of discoverable evidence, prosecutor protocols, officer credibility, and policy essentials are all explored in this course.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING HRCT – USE OF FORCE IN JAILS AND CORRECTIONAL FACILITIES This course defines the terms use of force, physical force, deadly physical force, and excessive force. This course will examine given situations to determine appropriate use of force and five specific circumstances in which correction officers have the right to use of force.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING – VALOR AMBUSH ATTACKS This online training module provides officers with tools to help them prevent and react to ambush attacks. It was created in response to the recent increase in ambush-style assaults that have led to the injuries or deaths of many law enforcement officer in recent years.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING – VALOR CASUALTY CARE-GET OFF THE X

This online training module helps law enforcement personnel implement techniques to deal with major hemorrhage caused by gunshot and/or knife wounds. These techniques are illustrated in a mock law enforcement-suspect encounter involving a felony traffic stop.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING – VALOR CASUALTY CARE-TOURNIQUITS This online training reviews Tactical Combat Casualty Care considerations for law enforcement officers-the recommended tourniquets and the application of each type on themselves, a fellow officer, or a citizen to prevent major blood loss.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING – VALOR CHARACTERISTICS OF WEAPON CONCEALMENT In this course, using actual cases, officers will examine and discuss common behaviors, movements, and visual cues that may indicated the presence of a weapon and the importance of identifying and defusing dangerous situations. Officers will learn about professional and constitutional policing considerations that address community concerns, including further emphasis on articulation and how to enhance the safety of both officers and the people whom they serve.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING – VALOR COMMON INDICATORS OF A POTENTIAL ATTACK This online training module helps officers identify common behavioral indicators of a potential attack. Recognizing these behavioral indicators will raise officers' awareness during suspect encounters and could potentially save officers' lives.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING – VALOR DEADLY MIX This online training module evaluates the officer, the offender, and the circumstances that brought them together in deadly force encounters. Based on research from the Federal Bureau of Investigation Behavioral Science Unit, this module examines case studies of officers who faced a drawn gun and identifies the moral, mental, and physical preparations necessary for officers to survive violent encounters.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING – VALOR FOOT PURSUITS This online training module helps officers identify practical considerations and recognize the dangers of foot pursuits. Mentally preparing and knowing specific agencies' foot-pursuit and use-of-force policies prior to initiating a foot pursuit is critical.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING – VALOR MENTAL HEALTH AND WELLNESS This online training module helps officers identify practical considerations and recognize the dangers of foot pursuits. Mentally preparing and knowing specific agencies' foot-pursuit and use-of-force policies prior to initiating a foot pursuit is critical.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING – VALOR OFFICER INVOLVED SHOOTING This online training module examines the sensory distortions that officers may experience before, during, and after officer-involved shootings. It provides training considerations and recommendations on how officers may improve their reactions to the stress of shootings.	0h 30m

ONLINE TRAINING – VALOR PHYSICAL HEALTH AND WELLNESS This online training module addresses the link between stressors encountered in the law enforcement profession and physical health. It illustrates the critical need for regular physical fitness to help ensure officer safety and provides guidance on how officers can improve their overall health and wellness.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING – VALOR RESPONDING TO INDIVIDUALS IN CRISIS This online training module addresses the preliminary steps officers should take when they are responding to an individual in crisis.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING – AR CRIME LAB EVIDENCE PACKAGING, SEX ASSAULT KIT TRACKING & BODY SUBMISSION This class explains the processes for Evidence packaging, sexual assault kit tracking and body submission for the Arkansas State Crime Lab.	2h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING – ARKANSAS CRIME LAB FIREARMS AND LATENT PRINTS This online training instructs officers on the proper way to submit firearms and latent print evidence to the Arkansas Crime Lab.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING – ARKANSAS CRIME LAB FORENSIC CHEMISTRY AND TOXICOLOGY This course will address the processes for the forensic chemistry and toxicology departments for the Arkansas Crime Lab.	2h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING – AR CRIME LAB DNA AND CODIS This online training instructs officers on the proper way to submit DNA evidence to the Arkansas Crime Lab	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING – HRCT – CARE CUSTODY OF PRISONERS – MINNEAPOLIS This class will address some concerns related to the George Floyd incident in Minneapolis and briefly address the Graham 3 part use of force decision.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING – HRCT – HOW LAW ENFORCEMENT SUPERVISORS MOTIVATE – EVEN IN DIFFICULT TIMES Everyone has goals of advancing his or her career. Individuals in law enforcement have the same desire. This class examines three key components on how to be a supervisor that motivates those they have been entrusted to lead.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING – HRCT – INVESTIGATING CITIZEN COMPLAINTS FOR SUPERVISORS This class offers supervisors a broad look at how to adequately investigate a citizen’s complaint. Through the tools, procedures, and practical applications, each supervisor will learn to fulfill her/her role with integrity and transparency. Gaining this knowledge will bring success to both the agency and community.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING – HRCT – NECK RESTRAINTS This class addresses some court cases such as City of Los Angeles vs. Lyons and Valenzuela vs. City of Anaheim and what they have to say about different types of neck restraints.	1h 0m

ONLINE TRAINING – HRCT – PROCEDURAL JUSTICE AND LEGITIMACY OF AUTHORITY Procedural Justice and Legitimacy of authority is not a new concept, but one that needs to be revisited. This lesson deals with the four pillars of procedural justice and shows the practical applications and benefits in building a stronger relationship between the community and law enforcement.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING – HRCT – YOU MAKE THE CALL This class sets up scenarios based upon the following court cases: Florida vs. Bostick, Brower vs. Inyo, Terry vs. Ohio, and California vs. Hodari D. and ask the student to make the call as to what the decision should be in each scenario.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING – HRCT – PUBLIC EMPLOYEE RETALIATION COMPLAINTS This course takes a look at internal complaints and how they should be addressed so that Supervisors are sure to not violate Title VII. Strategies are discussed that will prevent supervisors from causing issues that would lead to these complaints. Department handling or mishandling of these complaints can cause major implications for the department for years to come.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING – HRCT – SUICIDE PREVENTION IN JAILS This class will discuss the issues that jails and prisons have with suicides. Strategies will be discussed that help jail staff be more aware of signs and symptoms displayed by inmates and methods to help ensure the safety of inmates..	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING – HRCT – YOU MAKE THE CALL 2 This class discusses two scenarios that reflect on two Supreme Court Cases: Kansas vs. Glover and Collins vs. Virginia. You are asked to watch a scenario and make a decision based upon the current law.	0h 30m
ONLINE TRAINING – HRCT – RESTRAINT PRACTICES In 2020, restraint practices by law enforcement has been brought to the forefront of many media outlets, this class examines several law cases and provides timely reminders on the use of restraint force.	1h 0m
ONLINE TRAINING – HRCT – APPLYING THE LATEST ADVANCEMENTS IN DNA SEARCHING One of the newest developments to assist law enforcement in closing difficult cases is familial DNA searches. Law enforcement in some states have begun using public DNA data bases to assist in pointing them toward possible suspects. This class shares both techniques along with case files and future ramifications.	1h 0m