

12-10-309. Requests for the hearing and speech impaired

Each public safety answering point or dispatch center shall be equipped with a system for the processing of requests from the hearing and speech impaired for emergency response.