

12-10-314. Connection of network to automatic alarms, etc., prohibited

No person shall connect to a service supplier's network any automatic alarm or other automatic alerting devices which cause the number 911 to be automatically dialed and provide a prerecorded message in order to directly access the services which may be obtained through a public safety answering point.